INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Party Secretary of the Māori Party

Report on the Return of Party Donations and Loans for the 2016 Calendar Year

We have audited the attached Party Donations and Loans Return prepared by the Maori Party for the 2016 calendar year (the Return). The Return is prepared in accordance with Sections 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993 and contains information about the party donations and loans made to the Maori Party from 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2016.

Our audit has been undertaken so that we might state to the Party Secretary those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Party Secretary, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Party Secretary's Responsibility for the Party Donations Return

The Party Secretary is responsible for the preparation of the Party Donations and Loans Return which fairly presents and discloses the donations received by the Maori Party for the 2016 calendar year, as specified in Sections 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility to express an independent opinion on the Return in terms of the requirements of Sections 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993. Our engagement has been conducted in accordance with SAE 3100 Compliance Engagements to provide reasonable assurance that the Maori Party's Return has complied in all material respects with Section 210 and Section 214C of the Electoral Act 1993 for the period 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2016.

Use of Report

This report has been prepared for the Party Secretary of the Maori Party. We disclaim any assumption of responsibility for any reliance on this report to any persons or users other than the Party Secretary of the Maori Party, or for any purpose other than that for which it was prepared.

Other than in our capacity as auditor we have no relationship with, or interests in the Maori Party.

Inherent Limitations

Because of the inherent limitations of the audit process, it is possible that fraud, error or non-compliance may occur and not be detected. As the procedures performed for this engagement are not performed continuously throughout the year and the procedures performed are undertaken on a test basis, our assurance engagement cannot be relied on to detect all instances where the Maori Party may not have complied with Sections 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993.

The opinion expressed in this report has been formed on the above basis.

The scope of our work was limited in that:

- In common with organisations which receive donations, other income or loans in the form of cash or donated services, control over this income and any loans prior to being recorded is limited, and there are no practical audit procedures to determine the effect of this limited control.
- Controls over the recording of goods or services donated or lent to the Party are limited and there are no practical audit procedures to determine the effect of this limited control.
- There are difficulties in establishing the residency status of donors.
- There are difficulties in establishing the difference between the contract price and the reasonable market value of any goods and services provided to the Party at a discount or premium.
- There are difficulties in establishing the value to the Party of any terms and conditions of credit that are on more favourable terms and conditions than prevailed at the time.

Modified Opinion of the Return

Control over income from donations and the residency of donors, whether in the form of cash or as donated services, prior to being recorded by an organisation is limited, and there are no practical audit procedures to determine the effect of this limited control. Accordingly, an auditor of an organisation receiving significant amounts of donations usually qualifies their opinion to reflect the practical limitations of an audit in this area.

Due to the nature of these issues, we do not believe there is further information that can be provided to us by the Maori Party which would allow us to determine the effect of this limited control.

Proper accounting records of party donations, once entered in those records, have been kept by the Maori Party as far as appears from our examination of those records.

In our opinion, except for adjustments that might have been found necessary had we been able to obtain sufficient evidence concerning income from donations and the residency status of particular donors, the attached Return of Party Donations and Loans fairly reflects, in accordance with Section 210 and 214C of the Electoral Act 1993, the party donations and loans received by the Maori Party for the period 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2016.

In forming our opinion we were reliant on the information provided to us by the Party Secretary.
